TERMS OF TRADE DOCUMENT

BUSINESS NAME: Big Valley Investments Pty Ltd ("Business")
ABN: 36 748 798 612
Trading as Horticulture Produce Merchants

TERMS OF TRADE

14/05/2007

USE OF THIS DOCUMENT

This document comprises the Business' Terms of Trade for the purposes of the Horticulture Code of Conduct contained in the Trade Practices (Horticulture Code of Conduct) Regulations 2006 (Cth) (Code). It sets out the general terms upon which the Business will trade with growers in respect of horticultural produce.

Expressions and terms defined in the Horticulture Produce Agreement (HPA) have the same meaning when used in this document, unless the context otherwise requires. Any italicised references in this document are references to those terms or expressions as defined in the Code.

HORTICULTURE PRODUCE AGREEMENT PREVAILS

Whilst this document sets out the Business' general terms of trade, where the Code requires, transactions between growers and the Business must be conducted pursuant to a HPA. In the event of inconsistency between this document and the HPA, the HPA prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

BUSINESS IS A MERCHANT

The Business acts as a merchant for the purposes of the Code.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DELIVERY AND QUALITY OF PRODUCE

Produce supplied to the Business must comply with the following requirements:

1. Prior to delivery, the Supplier must provide documentation that is suitable to the Business that accurately describes the quantity, variety, size, class, description and characteristics of the Produce, including containers;
2. the Produce must be fit for human consumption and comply with any statutory regulations relating to but without limitation, food safety, packaging and/or labeling;
3. the Supplier must comply with all applicable laws with respect to the Produce including without limitation the Trade Measurement Act 1995 (Vic) as amended;
4. the Produce must be fit for its purpose, as specified by the Business from time to time;
5. the Produce must be delivered at the time and location specified in the relevant Purchase Order or otherwise as specified by the Business from time to time; and
6. the produce must be packed and presented and comply with the following product specifications including quality and shelf life:
 - a. the Product Specification Requirements that the Business has with respect to Produce (set out below) or any requirements agreed to between the Business and the Supplier (if any); and/or
 - b. if there are none or where the requirements that may be published by the Australian Chamber of Fruit and Vegetable Industries from time to time are not inconsistent with the requirements in paragraph 6.a – the Australian Chamber of Fruit and Vegetable Industries requirements.

The Supplier must not dispatch Produce to the Business that:

- does not comply with the requirements in paragraph 6; or
- has not been ordered by the Business.

CIRCUMSTANCES WHERE THE BUSINESS MAY REJECT PRODUCE

The Business is entitled to reject all or some of the Produce where:

- i) the Supplier does not have all right, title and interest in and to the Produce;
- ii) the Supplier cannot pass title to the Business clear of all encumbrances, claims and other third party interests;
- iii) the Supplier is not the grower of the Produce;
- iv) the Produce does not comply with paragraphs 1 to 5 above;
- v) within two (2) Business Days following receipt of the Produce by the Business, the Business considers, in its sole discretion, that:
 - a. market conditions in respect of the relevant Produce or generally, are not conducive to procuring an appropriate sale price for the Produce; or
 - b. there is a relative oversupply of the Produce in the market.
- vi) A claim for credit is made following the sale of the Produce by the Business to a third party which is accepted by the Business (Return), due to the Produce not complying with paragraphs i) to iv) above.

REQUIREMENTS WHERE PRODUCE IS REJECTED

The Business may only elect to reject Produce within two Business Days of:

- in the case of paragraphs i) to v) - receipt of the produce;
- in the case of paragraph vi) – the decision to accept the claim for credit.

The Business must immediately give notice to the Supplier of the decision to reject Produce and give notice of the reasons for such rejection within two Business Days after the day that the Business elects to reject the Produce.

Where Produce is rejected, the Business is deemed not to have purchased or taken ownership of that Produce. The Supplier retains the title and risk for the Produce and is not entitled to the Purchase Price.

PAYMENT OF PURCHASE PRICE

Payment for the Produce will be made no later than 21 Business Days from the end of the Week during which the relevant Produce is received and accepted by the Business.

The Business holds the following insurances for Produce:

Insurer	AFM Insurance Brokers
Maximum amount of claims covered by insurance	$30,000 any one conveyance / $30,000 any one loss or occurrence
Defined events covered by insurance	Accidental damage (Marine)

INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVICE

The Business recommends that Suppliers seek independent legal advice in relation to the HPA prior to it being entered into between the Business and the Supplier.
